

Kyndryl Data Security Posture Management Managed Services

Customer challenges

Many organizations are scaling cloud and AI initiatives across hybrid and multi-cloud environments. However, sensitive data is spread across platforms with limited visibility and control. This creates challenges such as:

- Inability to locate and classify sensitive data across environments
- Increased risk from excessive or misconfigured data access
- Growing complexity in meeting data security, privacy, and compliance requirements
- Limited resources to continuously monitor data exposure and misuse
- Difficulty responding quickly to data-related security incidents

Solution highlights

Kyndryl's Data Security Posture Management (DSPM) Managed Services deliver a proactive, continuous approach to protecting sensitive data across cloud, on-premises, and SaaS environments. The solution includes:

- Automated discovery and classification of sensitive data
- Continuous monitoring of access, encryption, and anomalies
- Risk indicators and DSPM scoring for exposure and misconfigurations
- Real-time alerts with guided or automated remediation
- Ongoing compliance and governance monitoring to prevent leakage

Customer benefits

- 1 Improved visibility – Clear insight into where sensitive data resides and how it is accessed
- 2 Reduced data risk – Early detection of risky behaviors, insider threats, and policy violations
- 3 Stronger compliance posture – Continuous alignment with data security, privacy, and regulatory requirements
- 4 Faster response – Quicker identification and remediation of data-related security incidents
